april 2017 Volume XLIV, Number 10

This month's issue of Patterns contains our annual report. 2016 already seems like so long ago, and in preparing this, I'm blown away by what we accomplished. In the everyday grind of work, the achievements can often be overlooked. That's why I'm glad that every year, we sit down and give everything and everyone due credit. As always, there is plenty to commend.

One of our biggest events in 2016 was the launch of our hour-long, daily talk show The 21st, featured on page 4 of the annual report. With Niala Boodhoo at the helm, the show has taken the state by storm, airing on three other public media stations and organizing outreach in the community.

Last year was also a great exploration of the many unique features of our local area. Several productions showcased our best and brightest, including Ebertfest, Barns, ART/BTS, Prairie Performances, and #BlackScienceMatters. Read more about them on pages 5-7.

I'm extremely proud of the many opportunities we provided for our local population. Our Book Mentor Project, Illinois Radio Reader, internship programs, and travel opportunities let us engage with our community on a more intimate level. You can find more details on pages 8-11.

As always, this annual report would be nothing without the involvement of our Friends. Through all of your support, we make incredible things happen. I hope you share our pride.

Illinois Public Media and Krannert Center for the Performing Arts present a joint radio production

At 7 pm Sunday, April 2, Jason Croft of IPM and Bridget Lee-Calfas of Krannert Center will present From the Stage at Krannert Center: Poetry and Song with Nathan and Julie Gunn and the Jupiter String Quartet. This joint production, recorded last October in Foellinger Great Hall at Krannert Center, features works from several 20th-century composers. The pieces performed were based on works of poetry, including George Butterworth's "Six Songs from A Shropshire Lad," from the writings of A.E. Houseman; and modern-day composer Jennifer Higdon's "Dooryard Bloom," from Walt Whitman's When Lilacs Last in the Dooryard Bloom'd.

This unique broadcast will also include interviews with performers Nathan and Julie Gunn and the Jupiter String Quartet. Following the hour-long show, Vincent Trauth will host a complementary hour of programming using recordings from Nathan Gunn's lengthy discography.

Moss Bresnahan, president and CEO of Illinois Public Media, said he was excited for the potential of this performance. "Mike Ross (director, Krannert Center for the Performing Arts) does an amazing job of bringing great talent to perform at KCPA. To showcase the Gunns and Jupiter String Quartet on our airwaves is a great honor, and will hopefully lead to further collaboration with the Center."

Jupiter String Quartet

The Jupiter String Quartet consists of violinists Nelson Lee and Meg Freivogel, cellist Daniel McDonough, and violist Liz Freivogel. Founded in 2004, they are the String Quartet-in-Residence at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign.

Nathan Gunn, baritone

Nathan Gunn is an alumnus of the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign and now acts as both professor of voice for the School of Music and the general director of Lyric Theatre @ Illinois.

Julie Gunn, piano

The director of Lyric Theatre Studies at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign's School of Music, Julie Gunn is also the founder of the Illinois School of Music Academy.

We know you love WILL, and now we want to hear why! Write your favorite thing about Illinois Public Media on the line on page 3 and snap a selfie to share with us. Let's fill social media with all the amazing things that make us #TeamWILL.

Tell us why you are #TeamWILL

"I have to say, this is like picking a favorite child! But the truth is that we couldn't be #TeamWILL without our community. We have a long-standing symbiotic relationship of supporting each other to make great things happen, and that's why we are #TeamWILL. We're better together!"

Moss Bresnahan, CEO
Illinois Public Media

On April 12, Illinois Public Media will host the WILL Marathon, where we race to fit a whole week's worth of fundraising in just 26.2 hours! It's a team effort, so we need you in tip-top shape to help us cross the Friends Finish Line! See pages 17-19 for all the details, including our official couch-to-couch marathon training guide.

A senseless tragedy

On December 14, 2012, a disturbed young man committed a horrific mass shooting in Newtown, Connecticut, that took the lives of 20 elementary school children and six educators. Kim A. Snyder's searing new documentary Newtown, an Independent Lens film, uses deeply personal, never-before-heard testimonies to tell the aftermath of the deadliest mass shooting of school children in American history. Airing at 8 pm Monday, April 3, the documentary explores the impact and resilience in this community devastated by trauma.

One holy week

The final week of Jesus' life stands at the very center of Christianity. The Bible paints a picture of Jesus as a local preacher who ran up against the Roman rulers in Jerusalem and paid for it with his life. But new evidence offers a very different image of Jesus—as an astute leader with ties to the most powerful people in Rome. This extraordinary docudrama presents new insight into the iconic Easter events through arresting documentary sequences filmed in Israel and Italy. Explore the Last Days of Jesus at 7 pm Tuesday, April 4.

Till death parts them

The electrifying team of Vittorio Grigolo and Diana Damrau reunites for a new production of Gounod's opera Romeo et Juliette, based on the Shakespeare play. Damrau makes her role debut as Juliette in Bartlett Sher's new production, conducted by Gianandrea Noseda. Elliot Madore sings Mercutio and Mikhail Petrenko sings Frère Laurent in this presentation by Great Performances at the Met at 8 pm Friday, April 14.

The Jerusalem of the north

For centuries, the Lithuanian city of Vilnius was one of the most important Jewish centers in the world until the Nazis destroyed it. About 95% of the Jewish population of Vilna was murdered and its synagogues and institutions were reduced to ruins. The Soviets finished the job, paving over the remnants of Vilna's famous Great Synagogue so thoroughly that few today know it ever existed. Now, an international team of archaeologists is trying to recover this lost world. They will excavate the remains of its Great Synagogue and uncover one of Vilna's greatest secrets: a lost escape tunnel dug by Jewish prisoners inside a horrific Nazi execution site. NOVA investigates this extraordinary find in Holocaust Escape Tunnel at 8 pm Wednesday, April 19.

In the Special Housing Unit

Frontline presents Last Days of Solitary at 8 pm Tuesday, April 18. Follow what happens to recently released prisoners when they go from the Special Housing Unit to the streets. With extraordinary access to the Maine State Prison, the film examines the long-term effects of solitary confinement and efforts to reduce its use.

The source of life

Worshiped and treasured since the dawn of humankind, few things on Earth are as miraculous and vital as seeds. SEED: The Untold Story at 9 pm Monday, April 17, follows passionate seed-keepers intent on protecting our 12,000 year-old food legacy. Under the spell of industrial "progress" and corporate profits, family farmsteads have given way to mechanized agribusinesses sowing genetically identical crops on a massive scale. But without seed diversity, crop diseases rise and empires fall. Presented by Independent Lens, the film reveals the work of farmers, scientists, lawyers, and indigenous seed keepers who are fighting a David-versus-Goliath battle to defend the future of our food.

The first world war

Drawing on the latest scholarship, including unpublished diaries, memoirs, and letters, The Great War from American Experience tells the rich and complex story of World War I through the voices of nurses, journalists, aviators, and the American troops who came to be known as "doughboys." The series explores the experiences of African-American and Latino soldiers, suffragists, Native-American "code talkers," and others whose participation in the war has been largely forgotten. A six-hour, three-night event beginning at 8 pm Monday, April 10, the series premiere is in conjunction with the 100th anniversary of America's entry into the war on April 6, 1917.

Episode 1

8 pm Monday, April 10

After three years of insisting that this was not America's war, on April 2, 1917, President Wilson appeared in front of a solemn joint session of Congress and asked for a declaration of war against Germany, proclaiming that "the world must be made safe for democracy."

Episode 2

8 pm Tuesday, April 11

In the spring of 1917, the United States was utterly unprepared for war. Its army ranked 17th in the world, behind Serbia's. France and Britain were dubious about America's might. At home, Congress and the American people remained deeply divided about going to battle. Wilson knew he needed to sell the war, and quickly.

Episode 3

8 pm Wednesday, April 12

At home, the war unfolded in headlines and at carefully staged fairs and expos. Americans read about a "Lost Battalion" and tracked the exploits of a new hero—pilot Eddie Rickenbacker. Meanwhile, a small group of Native American soldiers translated messages into Choctaw to confound German intelligence reports and help the American army break through at last.

WILL MARATHON

What is the WILL Marathon?

The WILL Marathon is a community effort to support high-quality news, unparalleled arts programming, great classical music, and essential early childhood educational tools and programming—with less on-air fundraising. Therefore, we're racing to fit a whole week's worth of fundraising into 26.2 hours. Our goal is to reach $100,000 by 9:01 AM on April 13. It's also a chance for #TeamWILL to make a huge difference in a short period of time by creating a brighter future for public media in central Illinois.

When is the WILL Marathon?

Join us at the starting line at 6:49 am on Wednesday, April 12, as we kick off our race. Help us keep the momentum going throughout the subsequent 26.2 hours so we can cross the Friends Finish Line together in a blaze of fundraising glory at 9:01 am on Thursday, April 13. Also, in celebration of an impressive #TeamWILL triumph, meet us from 7-9:30 am at the Friends Finish Line, just inside Friends Plaza at Campbell Hall, for a coffee and bagel bash presented by Einstein Bros. Bagels.

Why is the WILL Marathon important?

The WILL Marathon is a team effort to give in support of great public media and the many ways it enriches our lives, but with fewer interruptions of your favorite programs. Not only are we hoping to raise support in short period of time, we also want to build awareness of Illinois Public Media and our powerful mission for the central Illinois community.

How do I join #TeamWILL?

Renew your gift, increase your sustaining gift, or make a first time donation right now at willpledge.org.

Spread the word about the WILL Marathon and the importance of supporting great public media today. Use the card on page 3 to share why you joined #TeamWILL.

Get in shape with our couch-to-couch training guide on pages 18-19.

Join us on April 12 for the WILL Marathon. With #TeamWILL's help, we will be able to cross the Friends Finish Line, making this extra-short drive a huge success!

How is this different from other fund drives?

Over the last several years, we've worked to be more efficient with our fund drives. This year we've decided to try our boldest experiment, but it can only work with your help. We're relying on #TeamWILL (that's you!) to spread the word on social media and in person before April 12. With your help, we'll be able to make this extra-short fund drive a success.

Will my gift today count towards the WILL Marathon?

Yes! Pledge now and you'll give us a head start. Or come back and pledge on Wednesday, April 12. Either way, when you make a tax-deductible gift through willpledge.org, you're helping us create a new strategy for fundraising success.

Can I make a recurring gift?

You sure can! Choose the "Sustaining" option and support WILL as a sustainer. Then, we'll count the amount you'll give over the next 12 months toward the goal. If you're already a sustainer, this is a great time to consider increasing your monthly gift or making an additional one-time gift!

I still have questions—how can I get in touch?

April 8

Pianist William Kapell is featured in Classics of the Phonograph with John Frayne at 11 am on WILL-FM 90.9. After yesterday's rough work, be sure to indulge in your greatest comforts and unwind to this performance recorded live in Australia.

April 9

Check out the weekly favorite Wait, Wait... Don't Tell Me at noon on WILL-AM 580. Core work can be challenging; be prepared to bust a gut laughing!

WAIT WAIT...
DON'T TELL ME!
FROM NPR® & WBEZ® CHICAGO

April 10-12

It's time to get serious and really dig in to your training. Carbo-load, don your best yoga pants, and put up your feet to watch American Experience's presentation of The Great War, a three-part event airing at 8 pm each night.

April 12, 6:48 am

This is it. This is what we've been preparing for. You've done the work; you are ready to do this! Enjoy 26.2 hours of programming on WILL-TV, WILL-AM, and WILL-FM, all from your own couch.

April 13

We made it! Cross the Friends Finish Line, and join us inside Friends Plaza at Campbell Hall for a coffee and bagel bash presented by Einstein Bros. Bagels from 7-9:30 am.

1A comes to the airwaves May 1

Joshua Johnson (above) presents NPR's 1A at 9 am weekdays beginning May 1 on WILL-AM 580. With a name inspired by the First Amendment, 1A explores important issues such as policy, politics, technology, and what connects us across the fissures that divide the country. The program also delves into pop culture, sports, and humor. 1A's goal is to act as a national mirror—taking time to help America look at itself and to ask what it wants to be.

Look for more information in the May issue of Patterns!
