august 2018 Volume XLVI, Number 2

This August is a great month for television at Illinois Public Media. First and foremost, we have a new host for our long-running Mid-American Gardener, Tinisha Shade-Spain! Learn all about Tinisha and her vision for the show on page 1, and stay tuned as we announce future updates to this beloved program as it evolves to meet your gardening needs.

PBS's Summer of Adventure goes out with a bang this month with two great series on Wednesdays: The Outback (page 3) and Wonders of Mexico (page 10). It's a great opportunity to explore the world while sitting in your own living room.

Later in the month, PBS honors the First Lady of Television, the lovely Betty White. An icon in her own right, page 2 has the details on this fabulous special.

And finally, a reminder to vote in The Great American Read at pbs.org/greatamericanread. The series will return in September to explore the power of books through America's top 100 best-loved novels, as well as reveal the top choice as voted by the public.

Thank you Friends for keeping public media in the forefront as we savor the last days of summer.

Tinisha Shade-Spain named host of Mid-American Gardener

Illinois Public Media is delighted to announce Tinisha Shade-Spain as the new permanent host of Mid-American Gardener on WILL-TV.

East central Illinois viewers might recognize Shade-Spain from her days at WCIA, where she served as both a news reporter and anchor. Since then Shade-Spain has worked in economic development within her hometown of Danville, Ill. Most recently she is completing her certification in the University of Illinois Extension's Illinois Master Gardener program.

In this new host position, Shade-Spain is able to bring her love for gardening and her broadcast experience together. "She is a charismatic, garden-forward person who will be able to manage conversations between experts and callers with great ease thanks to her broadcast journalism background. She also has a great vision for the show," said Lisa Bralts, director of content and strategic communications for Illinois Public Media. "I couldn't be more thrilled to have her on board."

Shade-Spain's vision for the program is to show viewers how accessible and easy gardening can be. "I think a lot of people are intimidated or don't feel like they have time, and neither of those things are true. If you've got a dollar for a pack of seeds and a few minutes, you can do it."

She is also looking forward to taking discussions of urban and backyard farming and gardening to the next level while also keeping the topics and advice within the show's localized lens. "We need more young people growing food and flowers. We need more kids breaking beans and picking apples. I want to help make that happen in our communities via the program," she explained.

Mid-American Gardener broadcasts live Thursday nights at 7 pm on WILL-TV.

Everybody loves Betty

Filed over the course of five years, Betty White: First Lady Of Television is a warm look at the life and career of the beloved television and film legend who celebrates 80 years in show business this year—officially the longest career in the history of TV. Lauded for her roles as the bawdy Sue Ann on The Mary Tyler Moore Show, the innocent Rose on The Golden Girls and her more recent role as the worldly Elka on Hot in Cleveland, Betty White is also an industry pioneer. She was the first woman to produce a national TV show, the first woman to star in a sitcom, the first producer to hire a female director, and the first woman to receive an Emmy nomination.

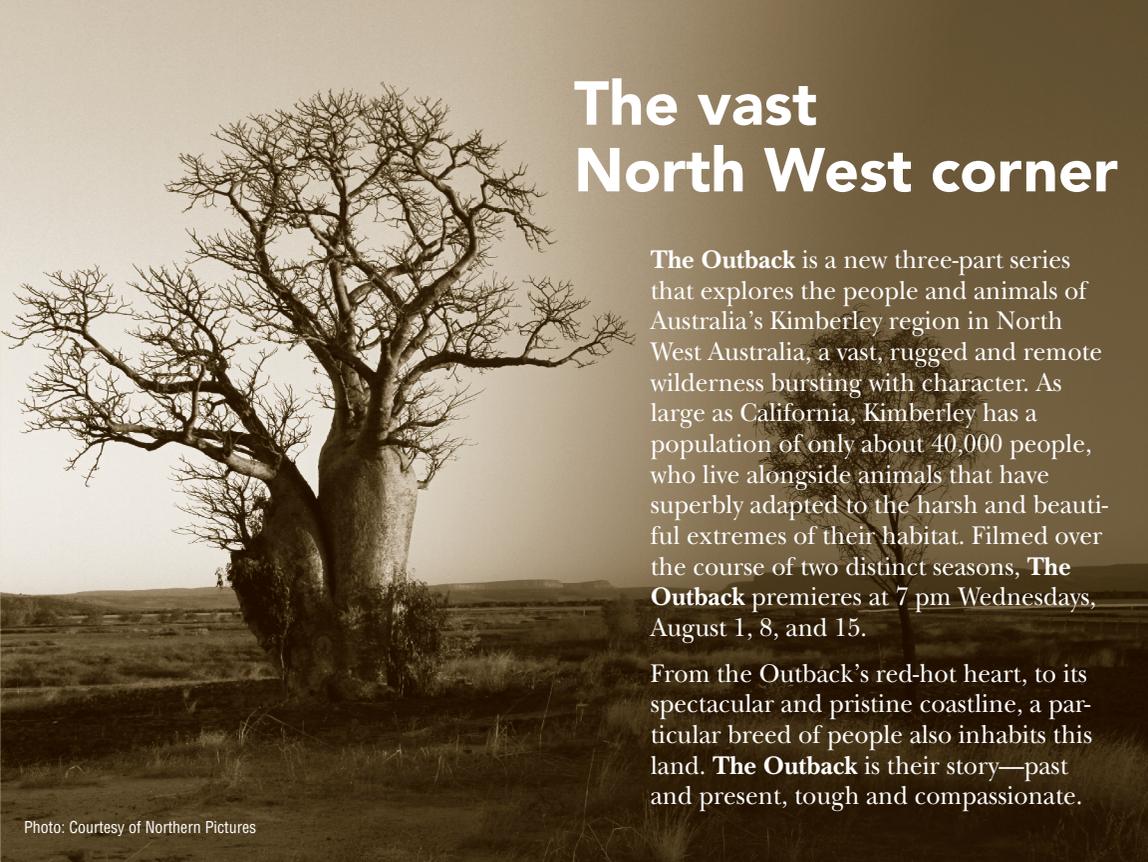

Granted exclusive access to Betty and her team, the producers were able to capture the magic of her performances at various venues, along with more personal moments at home and interacting with close friends. The film is packed with hilarious clips from her long career and comments from friends and co-stars, including Valerie Bertinelli, Georgia Engel, Tina Fey, Valerie Harper, Jennifer Love Hewitt, Gavin MacLeod, Carl Reiner, Ryan Reynolds, Tom Sullivan, Alex Trebek, and many more.

“Betty White has created some of the most memorable characters in television history,” said Jerry Liwanag, vice president of Fundraising Programming, PBS. “This new special reveals that she’s been a groundbreaking pioneer since her earliest days in the fledgling medium—both in front of and behind the camera. Her talent and creativity are timeless, transcending generations and cementing her legacy with each passing decade. She’s truly one of a kind.”

“The goal of the film from the beginning was to highlight the universal appeal that is Betty White... to showcase Betty’s life in front of and behind the curtain,” said co-director Steven J. Boettcher.

Betty White: First Lady Of Television airs at 7 pm, Tuesday, August 21.

The vast North West corner

The Outback is a new three-part series that explores the people and animals of Australia's Kimberley region in North West Australia, a vast, rugged and remote wilderness bursting with character. As large as California, Kimberley has a population of only about 40,000 people, who live alongside animals that have superbly adapted to the harsh and beautiful extremes of their habitat. Filmed over the course of two distinct seasons, The Outback premieres at 7 pm Wednesdays, August 1, 8, and 15.

From the Outback's red-hot heart, to its spectacular and pristine coastline, a particular breed of people also inhabits this land. The Outback is their story—past and present, tough and compassionate.

Great Performances presents The Vienna Philharmonic Summer Night Concert at 9 pm Friday, August 17. This annual performance by the philharmonic takes place in the park at Vienna's Schönbrunn Palace as a free event.

This year's program has the theme "An Italian Night" and is exclusively dedicated to selected works from the opera and ballet repertoire of Italian and Russian composers. Conducted by Valery Gergiev (left), the performance features opera star Anna Netrebko as she sings arias by Giacomo Puccini, Francesco Cilea, and Ruggero Leoncavallo.

Wonders of Mexico

Travel south along Mexico's mountain spine, explore the tropical forests of the Maya, and journey across the deserts of Northern Mexico to discover its amazing wildlife and culture in Wonders of Mexico. The 3-part series at 8 pm Wednesdays, August 1, 8, and 15 explores the Yucatan peninsula's wildlife of monkeys, jaguars, and tropical birds; the mountains of Mexico filled with black bears, volcanoes, and monarch butterflies; and the prairie dogs, bats, and tiny owls that survive the deserts of Northern Mexico.

We loved and then forgot

A village woman with no high school diploma becomes China's most famous poet, and her book of poetry the best-selling such volume in China in the past 20 years. POV presents Still Tomorrow, a film that follows Yu Xiuhua, a 39-year-old woman living with cerebral palsy as she faces sudden fame. The documentary poignantly weaves her personal narrative with that of an ascendant, urbanizing China. Still Tomorrow airs at 9 pm Monday, August 6.

Taken too soon

As the wild ride of the 1960's came to a close, Eva Hesse, a 34 year-old German-born American artist was cresting the wave of a swiftly rising career. One of the few women recognized as central to the New York art scene, she had over 20 group shows scheduled for 1970 in addition to being chosen for a cover article in ArtForum Magazine. Her work was finally receiving both the critical and commercial attention it deserved. When she died in May, 1970 from a brain tumor, the life of one of that decade's most passionate and brilliant artists was tragically cut short. American Masters presents Eva Hesse at 8 pm Friday, August 31.

Party of one

Deep inside The Caverns, Bluegrass Underground presents a concert special by roots-rocker Brandi Carlile. With amazing vocals, string arrangements, and searing guitar, Carlile showcases her collection of personal songs of love, joy, and loss from a growing Americana legend. Recorded in April at the foot of Monteagle Mountain in the rolling hills of Grundy County, Tennessee, the special airs at 9 pm Friday, August 3.

In Ancient Invisible Cities at 8 pm Wednesdays, August 29 and September 5 and 12, Professor Darius Arya explores the hidden secrets of three of the most fascinating cities of the ancient world: Cairo, Athens, and Istanbul. Through the latest 3D scanning technology, Arya reveals the historical secrets of a hidden Roman fortress, the underground treasures of Turkey, and the architectural jewels of Athens.

Love language

On June 19, the famous gorilla Koko died, leaving behind a 40-plus year legacy. Revisit the amazing story in Koko-The Gorilla Who Talks at 9 pm Wednesday, August 22. The one-hour special explores the relationship between Koko and Penny Patterson, the woman who taught the then baby gorilla sign language in 1971 for her Ph.D. assignment. It features footage from over 2,000 hours of film covering Koko's uncanny ability to communicate with humans throughout her unique life.

New Doc Martin episodes coming in January

Our regular run of Doc Martin comes to an end on August 23, but never fear! The infamous doctor will return for season 8 in January 2019, facing the daily challenges of marriage, parenthood, and the crazy characters of Portwenn.

Friends enjoy Missouri Botanical Garden

On June 9, 40 Friends joined interim Mid-American Gardener host Sandy Mason for a trip to Alwerdt's Garden Center in Altamont, followed by a visit to the Missouri Botanical Garden in St. Louis. While the day featured a lot of rain, there was some sunshine as Friends explored the variety of gardens along the way. Special thanks to Nick Alwerdt (below) for the tour of his over five acres of floral display gardens, as well as to our Friends who were troopers despite the weather!

News & Brews packs the house

On June 12, Illinois Newsroom had a full house for the first News & Brews community gathering. Coordinated by Senior Engagement Strategist Kristin Walters and held at Riggs Brewery in Urbana, the event featured a discussion on trauma, its effects on children, and how to help children cope.

Niala Boodhoo, host of The 21st, led a panel that featured Regina Crider, director of the Youth Family Peer Support Alliance and pastor at Crossroad of Life Community Church; Elizabeth DeGruy, director of special education for Champaign Unit 4 Schools; Karen Simms, founder of Meridian K Consulting; and Lee Gaines, Illinois Newsroom education reporter.

The discussion centered around the long-term effects of trauma on children and the impact of that trauma in the classroom. An audience of parents, teachers, activists, and children furthered the conversation about how schools in Illinois help children cope.

Scott Cameron, Illinois Newsroom's executive editor, said the discussion of trauma among children and what educators are doing to help families and kids was informative, powerful, and empowering.

"It was inspiring to see so many community members come together to address this important topic. As journalists, we always hope our work contributes to further discussion and a search for solutions."

Stay tuned to the WILL Radio TV Online Facebook page for more information on future News & Brews events.

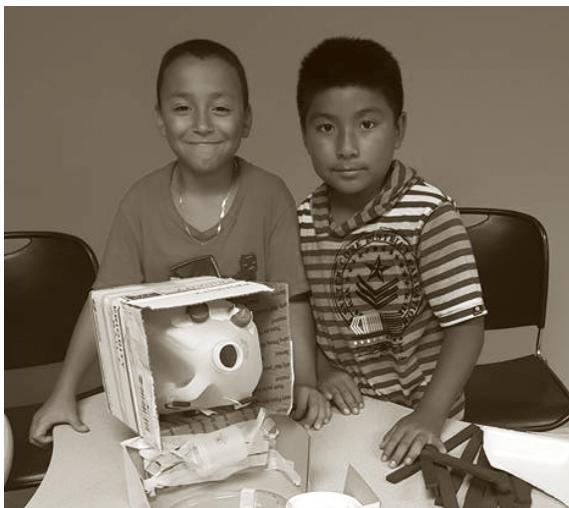

Design Squad heads to Rantoul

The kids create a turtle (above) and a pig in its pigpen (right) using recycled packaging.

WILL Education's Design Squad visited the Rantoul Multicultural Community Center on June 18. 16 kids participated in the 6-week program entitled "STEAM All Around Us." The kids learned about recycling and conservation through the nationwide Design Squad curriculum, and created animals creatures from recycled packaging.

Design Squad is a series of guides and lesson plans to help children solve real-world problems and understand the impact of engineering. A part of PBS Kids, the program has weekly updates for challenges, videos, and activities to encourage STEAM principles in kids' everyday lives.
