January 2019 Volume XLVI, Number 7

New year, new look

It's a new year, which provides a great opportunity for refreshment and renewal. Patterns is no exception, and I hope you enjoy the new look.

This month, our documentary film series Reel Midwest returns. This is a special project of mine, and I am happy to share these amazing films with you. Page 1 has info on the films featured this month.

We are also starting two new regular features in Patterns: WILL Passport updates and 45th Anniversary of Friends of WILL highlights. Both are found in the News section and will keep you up-to-date on our online programming and the year-long celebration, respectively.

And finally, it's the return of a fan favorite: Masterpiece Classic's Victoria. See page 11 for the details on how you can join us for a sneak preview of the new season.

2019 is off to a great start at Illinois Public Media!

Reel Midwest—Illinois Public Media’s independent film series that aims to find the best in features, documentaries, and shorts in Illinois and across the Midwest—returns to the WILL-TV primetime lineup at 9 pm Thursdays, from January 3 through February 28. The series includes ten episodes that feature 15 films.

JANUARY’S FILMS

Inquiring Nuns | January 3

Two young nuns explore Chicago—from a supermarket to the Art Institute to the front of churches on Sunday—to confront people with the crucial question, “Are you happy?” The answers they get range in sincerity and depth.

Diverse Voices | January 10

This collection of short films from Kartemquin Films includes Shinemen, The Amazing Mr. Ash, and Parts and Labor. They follow the lives and times of a variety of everyday people, including a shoeshine technician, a magician, a skateboarder, a mom-and-pop hardware store owner, and so much more.

Vietnam, Long Time Coming | January 17

Back in 1998, the World T.E.A.M. (The Exceptional Athlete Matters) took a 16-day, 1,100 mile bicycle expedition through once war-torn Northern and Southern Vietnam. For the veteran athletes, the ride is more of an exorcism than a race.

Now We Live on Clifton | January 24

10-year-old Pam Taylor and her 12-year-old brother Scott grew up in a multiracial Chicago neighborhood, but they worry that they’ll be forced out by the gentrification following the expansion of DePaul University.

Winnie Wright—Age 11 | January 24

Winnie, the daughter of a steel worker and a teacher, lives in a Chicago neighborhood that is changing from white to black. As her family struggles, she learns what it means to grow up white, working class, and female.

My Sister Hali | January 31

After 50 years of burying the past, Paul Sheriff returns to his childhood hometown of Blue Mound, Illinois to reconstruct the pieces of his extraordinary childhood filled with Olympic dreams and catastrophic loss.

Vision CIRCLE

In 2022, we'll celebrate 100 years of public media in central Illinois. We have you to thank for that legacy—gifts from Friends have kept this service strong since the first on-air fund drive in 1974. Almost 30 years ago, we began asking Friends to invest in WILL with annual gifts of $1,000 or more. This group, originally called Vision 2022—later, Vision Circle—has been a guiding force with their annual gifts. This month, we salute them all, and thank them for their terrific support, especially in this 45th anniversary year of the Friends of WILL.

The Florida Everglades

The Swamp tells the dramatic story of humanity's attempts to conquer the Florida Everglades, one of nature's most mysterious and unique ecosystems. Told through the lives of a handful of colorful and resolute characters, from hucksters to politicians to unlikely activists, The Swamp explores the repeated efforts to transform what was seen as a vast and useless wasteland into an agricultural paradise, ultimately leading to a passionate campaign to preserve America's greatest wetland. The Swamp is a timely tale of the perils of mankind's abuse of nature. The American Experience documentary will premiere at 8 pm Tuesday, January 15.

King of the Road

Independent Lens presents The King at 8 pm Monday, January 28. 40 years after the death of Elvis Presley, two-time Sundance Grand Jury winner Eugene Jarecki's new film takes the King's 1963 Rolls-Royce on a musical road trip across America. From Memphis to New York, Las Vegas, and beyond, the journey traces the rise and fall of Elvis as a metaphor for the country he left behind. In this groundbreaking film, Jarecki paints a visionary portrait of the state of the American Dream and a penetrating look at how we got here. A diverse cast of Americans, both famous and non, join the journey, including Alec Baldwin, Rosanne Cash, Chuck D, Emmylou Harris, Ethan Hawke, Van Jones, Mike Myers, and Dan Rather, among many others.

Get back to your roots

Today's brightest personalities discover the surprising stories buried within their own families in the fifth season of the critically acclaimed PBS series Finding Your Roots with Henry Louis Gates, Jr. The new ten-episode season will premiere at 8 pm Tuesdays, beginning January 8.

Highlights include a search for Andy Samberg's biological grandparents, the solution to a mystery that has plagued Ann Curry's family for her entire life, and the discovery of Michael Strahan's deep European ancestry.

Victoria preview event

It is 1848, and revolution is breaking out across Europe. In Britain, one woman stands between order and chaos: Queen Victoria. Jenna Coleman stars as the young but fearless monarch, facing a crisis that threatens to end her reign, on Victoria, Season 3 premiering at 7 pm Sunday, January 13, on Masterpiece Classic on WILL-TV.

To celebrate the new season, Illinois Public Media will host a Victoria season 3 preview event at The Virginia Theatre in Champaign at 7 pm Monday, January 7. All are welcome for this free event.

Victoria is created, written, and executive produced by Daisy Goodwin. The series was a runaway hit during its first two seasons, with The New York Times calling it “tremendously engaging...immediately gratifying,” and Paste magazine proclaimed, “Victoria is a royal masterpiece.”

Continuing the story of Victoria’s rule over the largest empire the world has ever known, season 3 introduces fascinating new historical characters, including the vainglorious Lord Palmerston, who crosses swords with the queen over British foreign policy. Also vexing the queen this season is Victoria’s devoted but troubled half-sister, Princess Feodora, who seeks refuge at Buckingham Palace due to political unrest back home in Germany.

We find Victoria pregnant with her sixth child. But she has much on her mind, chiefly the Revolutions of 1848, when the downtrodden throughout Europe begin agitating for the overthrow of aristocratic rule. This discontent leads to Chartism, a set of demands for universal male suffrage, the secret ballot, equal representation for voters and other reforms that were considered radical by leading political figures during Victoria’s reign. Meanwhile, Victoria and Albert find themselves at odds about their six offspring (especially the troubled Bertie), the role of the monarchy, and increasingly with each other.

The wedding that set the standard

Enjoy a recreation of the wedding that changed British matrimonial ceremonies forever. Victoria & Albert: The Wedding is hosted by Lucy Worsley and airs at 9 pm Sundays, January 13 and 20. A team of experts reconstructs the ceremony and reception of Victoria and Albert, including the dress, food, and music. The series celebrates an enduring love that was to melt the nation’s heart and established new traditions for generations of brides to come across the world.

Patterns to feature monthly WILL Passport updates

Our member benefit, WILL Passport, provides you with extended access to an on-demand library of quality local and national public television programming.

Each month, episodes and features are made available to members with Passport for extended access to our online programming, while others are removed due to streaming rights expiration. Now, every month Patterns will highlight both the newest shows as well as the old ones leaving, so you can take full advantage of this member benefit.

Friends that give $60 or more per year ($5 or more per month) are eligible for WILL Passport. You can watch WILL Passport on your computer, smartphone, or tablet through our website or at PBS.org, Apple TV, Roku, and Amazon Fire. More information about this benefit is available at will.illinois.edu/passport.

To access your Passport, go to: pbs.org/passport/lookup to get your activation code. If you need more information on how to activate WILL Passport, please call our Membership Hotline during normal business hours at 800-898-1065.

Illinois Public Media hosts Women in Journalism conference

On November 14, Illinois Public Media hosted Women in Journalism, a conference to celebrate the legacy of women in journalism. Held at the National Center for Supercomputing Applications, the event included a buffet lunch followed by a panel discussion. The conference was hosted by Host and Executive Producer of The 21st Niala Boodhoo and featured the following panelists:

- Stephanie Craft, Department Head, Journalism, College of Media
- Monica Eng, WBEZ, Curious City and Chewing podcast
- Lee V. Gaines, Illinois Newsroom
- Christine Herman, WILL and Side Effects Public Media
- Kelly McEvers, NPR's Embedded podcast

The panel discussion focused on how things have changed for women in journalism, what may still need to change, and what the future may hold with more women working in journalism than ever before.

The event was a great success, with longtime Friend Carolyn Mullaly singing its praises. "Not only did we get real in-depth personal stories of each woman's journalism experience, but an event that ran seamlessly and well. Gold stars in abundance to all!"

► (from top): Christine Herman listens as Kelly McEvers speaks during the panel. Panelists Stephanie Craft, Monica Eng, and Lee V. Gaines enjoy the conversation. Guests select their lunch choices prior to the panel discussion.

Conference kicks off anniversary celebration

The Women in Journalism conference also served as the kickoff for the 45th anniversary of the Friends of WILL.

"The 45th anniversary of the Friends of WILL is a wonderful opportunity for the stations to salute the thousands of individuals and families all across central Illinois whose annual gifts have kept public radio and television moving forward since 1974. We're planning a series of Patterns articles, events, and on-air messages to celebrate your contributions all year long," said Janet Picillo, chair of Illinois Public Media's Community Advisory Committee.

45 FRIENDS OF

Tune in to WILL Radio and TV as well as Patterns magazine for announcements regarding the celebration throughout this 45th anniversary year. "Our goal is to let each and every Friend of WILL know just how much we appreciate annual gifts for our stations," said Danda Beard, development director at Illinois Public Media.

A fond farewell, a warm hello

The time has come to say goodbye to two of our favorite shows. As Time Goes By and Last of the Summer Wine are officially leaving the WILL-TV lineup.

"I'm glad that we've been able to share these Britcoms with our viewers for more than two decades," said David Thiel, director of programming services. "I don't doubt that they'll return some day. That said, it's good to try new things, and we've got four new-to-WILL comedies debuting this month!"

While it is sad to see them go, never fear: BritComs will continue to be featured on the primetime schedule. On Saturdays, the new Hold the Sunset at 7 pm, followed by the new Still Open All Hours at 7:30 pm, and Red Dwarf at 10 pm. The new series The Detectorists airs at 10 pm Tuesdays, Marley's Ghosts is at 10 pm Thursdays, and the new Upstart Crow airs at 10 pm Fridays. For more information on these series, check the listings on pages 12-16.
