June 2020 Volume XLVII, Number 12

Our fiscal year ends at the end of this month and, though our operations have recently changed dramatically, I am incredibly proud of what our station has still accomplished over the entirety of the last 12 months. We debuted a new documentary and related live performance series with Illinois Country, we introduced Brian Mackey as the new host for The 21st, our education team quickly created at home learning curriculum for local students, Vic Di Geronimo celebrated his tenth year hosting Classic Mornings, our Illinois Newsroom revamped its coverage around coronavirus's local impact, and there was so much more.

In fact, it's been an incredible couple of years at WILL. Due to the unexpected disruptions of the coronavirus, our plans for including our 2019 Annual Report in Patterns this spring did not work out. However, the report is up online and I recommend you take a look to review our great work at will.illinois.edu/about/annualreports.

As we look forward to our next fiscal year, we will continue our role as an essential resource to you. Predictably, many of our funding sources for next fiscal year are much more uncertain today than they were a few months ago. But thanks to our forward-funded model, the funding we receive from the Friends of WILL is not uncertain. This makes our end of fiscal year fundraising goal so important. As of press time, we still have another $200,000 total to raise. If you are in a position to make an additional gift right now at willgive.org it would be greatly appreciated. Thank you!

A concert in the park at home!

Allerton Park and WILL are teaming up to bring you a summer concert inspired by Allerton Park, featuring Viktor Krauss and Friends

Allerton Park Director Derek Peterson and WILL CEO Moss Bresnahan want you to still enjoy the summer concert season—on your own! WILL has teamed up with Allerton to bring you a special concert from bassist Viktor Krauss, performed especially for people who love Allerton Park and WILL. The special will air at 7 pm Saturday, June 20 on WILL-FM 90.9.

Krauss grew up in and around Champaign, Illinois; he has recorded solo albums and recorded alongside musicians of many genres, including his sister, singer and fiddler Alison Krauss.

“As a locally-focused public media station, we are always looking for new ways to work with Allerton,” says Bresnahan. “It is such a wonderful gem centrally located in our FM signal’s coverage. They have been a great partner to WILL over the years. This seems like the perfect opportunity to partner with them and give people a chance to interact with park and stay within current social distancing guidelines. And, of course, we are thrilled to present Viktor Krauss’ amazing music as the perfect accompaniment.”

Visit will.illinois.edu/fm for more information about how you can enjoy this event, wherever you are!

TRAILBLAZERS

A CENTURY OF EXTRAORDINARY WOMEN

CELEBRATING
THE 100th
ANNIVERSARY
TO VOTE

Great Performances presents Ann with Emmy Award-winner Holland Taylor's compelling portrayal of the legendary Texas Governor Ann Richards. Airing at 8 pm Friday, June 19, Ann is a no-holds-barred theatrical portrait of the inimitable Ann Richards, who served as Governor from 1991-95. The play is a compelling look at the inspiring woman who enriched the lives of her followers, friends, and family. Through excerpts from public speeches and private phone calls with famous figures including the likes of Bill Clinton, Ann Richards is revealed as a complex, colorful, and captivating character with a personality even bigger than the state from which she hailed.

American Masters presents Toni Morrison: The Pieces I Am, an artful and intimate meditation on the legendary storyteller that examines her life, her works and the powerful themes she has confronted throughout her literary career. Toni Morrison, author of 11 novels and recipient of the 1988 Pulitzer Prize and the American Book Award for her novel, Beloved, as well as the 1993 Nobel Prize for Literature, among many other honors, leads an assembly of her peers, critics and colleagues on an exploration of race, history, America and the human condition. The film premieres at 7 pm Tuesday, June 23.

Mae West achieved great acclaim in every entertainment medium that existed during her lifetime, spanning eight decades of the 20th century. She possessed creative and economic powers unheard of for a female entertainer in the 1930s and still rare today. Though she was a comedian, West grappled with some of the more complex social issues, including race, class tensions, gender conformity, and moral hypocrisy. This is the first major documentary film to explore West's life and career, as she "climbed the ladder of success wrong by wrong" to become a writer, performer and subversive agitator for social change.

American Masters premieres Mae West: Dirty Blonde at 7 pm Tuesday, June 16

Every kid needs a hero

Science is powerful, and Hero Elementary, a new multiplatform animated PBS KIDS series, will help spark a love of science among kids nationwide when it premieres June 1. Hero Elementary is a school for budding superheroes, where kids learn to master their innate powers, like flying and teleportation, while exploring science along the way.

The series will give children ages 4 to 7 important tools to solve problems by encouraging them to think and act like scientists, igniting their natural curiosity. Hero Elementary also showcases character and social-emotional concepts such as kindness, empathy, and commitment to working together to solve problems. WILL-TV is excited to offer the show to kids in central Illinois at 8 am and 2 pm on WILL-HD.

Grantchester returns on MASTERPIECE

It's 1957, and Will Davenport has settled into his role as the vicar of Grantchester, preaching to a packed church. His best friend, Detective Inspector Geordie Keating, has come to accept his wife Cathy's commitment to her job. Just about everyone seems happy, but Will's faith will be thoroughly tested as he and Geordie are reminded once more that there's darkness lurking in their little corner of Cambridgeshire. Season 5 of Grantchester premieres at 8 pm Sunday, June 14.

A house with a story to tell

Beecham House, MASTERPIECE's new epic drama created by British-Indian director Gurinder Chadha (Bend It Like Beckham) takes viewers back to a time before British rule in India, when the Mogul Empire was on its last legs and wealth was up for grabs. The six-part British drama, debuting at 9 pm Sunday, June 14 stars Tom Bateman, Lesley Nicol (Downton Abbey), Dakota Blue Richards (Endeavour), and Leo Suter (Victoria).

The tale unfolds in 1795 as Englishman and former East India Company solidier John Beecham arrives with deep pockets in Delhi. He has all the appearances of a rugged individualist, but he's determined to reunite his family and even has an infant in tow. He can afford an opulent palace as his abode, but what will his secrets cost John and those he loves?

A fiercely intelligent, radical activist who became a fabulously wealthy recluse in her later years, Marion Stokes was dedicated to furthering and protecting the truth—so much so that she recorded American television 24 hours a day for over 30 years. Now, the critically acclaimed documentary Recorder: The Marion Stokes Project peels back the curtain on her life, through a mix of Stokes' own archive of recordings and interviews with those who knew her best. The film by Independent Lens airs at 9 pm Monday, June 15.

PBS American Portrait, a national storytelling project that is aligned with PBS's 50th anniversary celebration, invites America to participate in a national conversation about what it really means to be an American today. In the coming months, look for ways to submit your own story that captures the state and spirit of our nation.

WILL-TV presents a special edition of American Portrait that will focus on the lives of Central Illinoisans living through the COVID-19 pandemic. In this 30-minute series debut, we meet a pastor, a high school senior, a grocery store operator, a nurse and father, a small business owner, and an oil producer who are adjusting to the economic, social, and psychological impact of the crisis. American Portrait: Central Illinois "In This Together" is presented as a diary-style narrative spanning from late March to early May, 2020. The premiere episode airs at 7:30 pm Thursday, June 18. Later episodes will feature updates from these characters and introduce new stories.

WILL Education hosts online forum for local school districts

On April 23, WILL Education hosted an online Q & A forum in response to the many school changes due to COVID-19. Held through Facebook Live, the panelists included Dr. Jennifer Ivory-Tatum, superintendent of Urbana School District; Dr. Susan Zola, superintendent of Champaign School District; and Dr. Dynesha Grissom, clinical psychologist. They and their staff answered questions from the community regarding the schools' online education resources and the best strategies for helping children cope with the new changes.

Brian Mackey is new host of The 21st

Brian Mackey, longtime statehouse reporter for WUIS-FM and public radio stations across Illinois, joins Illinois Public Media in Urbana, Illinois as the new host/producer of The 21st. The statewide talk show—focusing on Illinois people and topics—airs Monday-Thursday at 11:00 a.m. on WILL-AM in Urbana, WGLT-FM in Normal, WNIJ-FM in DeKalb, and WUIS-FM in Springfield.

Mackey made his debut as The 21st's full-time host on March 30. As part of social distancing guidelines from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, he is currently hosting the show from his home in central Illinois.

"In our era of political division, and our more recent introduction to social distancing, I believe in the power of conversation to bring people together," said Mackey. "The 21st is a place where Illinoisans can hear from each other—and make themselves heard."

Once these guidelines are lifted, Mackey will host The 21st from a variety of locations across the state, including the WILL studios in Urbana, the WUIS studios in Springfield, and the state Capitol. This flexibility allows for the show to be responsive to the state's needs.

"As a frequent guest and guest host, I've found the collaboration that goes into making each episode of The 21st among the more gratifying experiences of my career," he said. "I hope that collaboration extends to listeners across the state, as we work with and within communities to cover issues that are important to all Illinoisans."

Mackey joins the Illinois Public Media team after spending eight years as the statehouse reporter for WUIS-FM, where he provided coverage of the Capitol for public radio stations throughout Illinois, including WILL. In addition, he appeared on the station's week-in-review show State Week, and wrote in-depth features and a column for Illinois Issues magazine. Prior to working at WUIS, he was A&E editor at The State Journal-Register in Springfield and Statehouse bureau chief for the Chicago Daily Law Bulletin.

"Mackey's experience covering politics will be invaluable for listeners of The 21st," said Reginald Hardwick, news and public affairs director at Illinois Public Media. "His presence in Springfield will help us elevate the essential statewide conversations we need to be having about what's going on at the Capitol. His knowledge of the nation's 21st state, in particular its arts and culture, will bring a lot of Illinois 'flavor' to this show, and I believe listeners will also enjoy his quick wit."

Mackey earned a B.A. in Business Administration from Governors State University and an M.A. in Public Affairs Reporting from the University of Illinois Springfield.
