May 2019 Volume XLVI, Number 11

Last month we held our 3rd annual WILL Marathon. Once again, our community rose up to the challenge, and with great team spirit, we spent 26.2 hours fundraising. While our final totals are still being tabulated at press time, we want to thank each and every one of you that put together your #TeamWILL and participated in this successful event. We also want to thank the Newman's Own Foundation for once again matching our Marathon contributions. Hear, hear for #TeamWILL!

Now we look to May, with new television and radio programming filling in our longer days. Viewer favorite Father Brown is back for a new season, as well as the new Belgian mystery series Professor T. Operas from the Royal Opera House will be featured on Saturday's Afternoon at the Opera with John Frayne on 90.9 and 101.1 FM, and another one of our wildly successful News & Brews events will be held on May 28.

We are also gearing up for summer. Chances to preview Chasing the Moon, a film about the 1969 moon landing, are sprinkled throughout the month. The documentary will air in July. And we are in the process of updating our TV studio, with more on that in June.

Enjoy the warm weather, Friends, and stay tuned to WILL!

Each evening will spotlight one of these leading voices of musical theatre, combining the intimacy of cabaret with the razzle dazzle of Broadway. Live From Lincoln Center Presents—Stars in Concert will air over three Friday evenings in May at 7 pm.

May 10

Bursting onto the scene with her star-making performance in The Color Purple, Cynthia Erivo is swiftly approaching the haloed EGOT status. The classically trained actor—she graduated from the famed Royal Academy of Dramatic Art—with a powerhouse voice already has a Tony, Grammy, and Emmy Award under her belt, and is now seamlessly making the transition from Broadway to the big screen. During this momentous time in her career, Erivo brings her rich vocals and radical talent to The Appel Room for a soulful evening of song

May 17

Described as “luminous” and “a sly comic genius” (New York Times), Broadway favorite Annaleigh Ashford has thrilled audiences in Sunday in the Park with George, Kinky Boots, and You Can't Take It With You, for which she won a Tony Award. She also earned television fame with critically acclaimed turns on Masters of Sex and American Crime Story. For this special one-night engagement, Ashford lends her stunning vocals and comic verve to the gorgeous Appel Room, bringing ebullience and warmth to a New York evening.

May 24

With an operatic voice range and sunny charm, Tony-nominated songstress Megan Hilty is the epitome of musical stardom. After making her Broadway debut as Glinda in Wicked opposite Idina Menzel to critical acclaim, Hilty went on to star in Noises Off, 9 to 5, and NBC's musical drama Smash. For one night only, the multifaceted artist brings her immense talents and infectious charisma to the twinkling Appel Room with a versatile set of songs celebrating favorite musical-theatre composers and classic standards.

Let us pray

Father Brown is back at 9 pm Thursdays starting May 9. The crime-solving Catholic priest returns in the seventh season of the hit mystery series, set in the 1950s in the fictional village of Kembleford. Also returning are Sorcha Cusack as Mrs McCarthy, Jack Deam as Inspector Mallory, and Emer Kenny as Bunty Windermere, as well as Nancy Carroll as Lady Felicia.

Tender grapes

Harvest Season probes the lives of the temporary laborers, permanent residents, and multigenerational Latinos intimately connected to the production of premium wines in the Napa and Sonoma regions of Northern California—in the midst of one of the most dramatic grape harvests in recent memory. The Independent Lens film follows the stories of three subjects essential to the wine industry, yet rarely recognized for their contributions: veteran winemaker Gustavo Brambila, Mexican migrant worker René Reyes, and wine entrepreneur Vanessa Robledo. The documentary airs at 9 pm Monday, May 13.

An American patriot

Norman Mineta is a man of many firsts: the first Asian American mayor of a major city (San Jose, California); the first Japanese American from the mainland to be elected to Congress; and the first Asian American to serve in a presidential cabinet. Beyond these groundbreaking achievements, Mineta personifies the American dream. A US citizen by birth, he was imprisoned by his own country for his Japanese ancestry, yet he steadfastly remained a patriot, leading a Congressional effort for an apology from the US. Norman Mineta and His Legacy: An American Story, airs at 8 pm Monday, May 20.

Get on your feet

This year's winners of the Library of Congress Gershwin Prize for Popular Song are Emilio and Gloria Estefan. Airing at 8 pm Friday, May 3, the special will honor the more than 30-year career of the Cuban-American couple. Married since 1978, the Estefans started their extraordinary rise to global fame in 1985 with Miami Sound Machine, creating a unique sound that blended Latin and pop rhythms. Many of their iconic hits—including "Conga," "Turn the Beat Around," "Get on Your Feet," and "Rhythm Is Gonna Get You"—reflected the perfect marriage of creative lyrics, high-octane rhythms, and spirited vocals. Hosted by Rita Moreno and Andy Garcia, the show also features Jose Feliciano, Il Volo, Cyndia Lauper, and more.

Well I was born in a small town

Monrovia, Indiana explores a small town in rural, mid-America and illustrates how values like community service, duty, spiritual life, generosity, and authenticity are formed, experienced, and lived along with conflicting stereotypes. The film gives a complex and nuanced view of daily life in Monrovia and provides some understanding of a way of life whose influence and force have not always been recognized or understood in the big cities on the east and west coasts of America and in other countries. Experience this small town just 2 hours from Champaign-Urbana at 8 pm Friday, May 31.

Ensuring our community has access to public media for years to come.

WILL remembers Dave Grothe (1946-2017) fondly. He was a longtime annual Friend of WILL on behalf of his business, G-com, and he served on WILL's Community Advisory Committee. He established a charitable gift annuity to benefit WILL and the computer science department at the University of Illinois.

Dave once said, "My experience at the U of I was quite special. The courses were excellent, and beyond that, the ability to participate in such a significant research project as Illiac IV was truly a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity. The group of graduate students and professors who comprised that group were top-notch in every respect. It is truly rare to be able to work in such an atmosphere.

Beyond computing, the U of I also offered numerous cultural opportunities. I have been a lifelong lover of classical music and took advantage of what the School of Music had to offer while I was on campus. Naturally, I became familiar with the U of I's public radio station, WILL, and have continued as a listener and supporter ever since...."

Charitable gift annuities can be a terrific way to plan a gift for WILL and other parts of the University of Illinois. Donors receive an immediate tax deduction and guaranteed income for themselves or a loved one.

Explore beautiful Starved Rock on May 18

Join Environmental Almanac's Rob Kanter on very special bus trip to Starved Rock on Saturday, May 18. We'll leave Urbana on a chartered bus in the morning and head to Starved Rock for an early afternoon guided hike. We will hike through canyons and bluffs made from St. Peter's Sandstone. Since this is taking place in late spring, there is a good possibility the parks waterfalls will be active.

Our guide will describe to the group how Starved Rock got its name along with other tales and truths. After the hike you will have a short time to explore the Starved Rock Lodge. Lunch and snacks are included.

The guided hike is 4.5 miles round trip and is considered strenuous as there are many stairs and uneven terrain. To reserve your seat for a gift of $84, go to willpledge.org or call 1-800-898-1065.
