november 2017 Volume XLV, Number 5

Every month, this magazine's primary goal is to show you the amazing things we do with the help of our Friends. We share the great television programming, our high-quality radio broadcasts, and our constant engagement with the community through local public media.

But this month, you'll find a special insert that shifts the focus from us to you. We are honored to have so many loyal donors that consistently provide monetary support to Illinois Public Media. This insert includes all the donors from the past fiscal year and their various levels of financial support. To each and every one of you, I and the entire staff of IPM say thank you.

This issue also shares some of our best news yet: our EMMY® win! It truly is OUR win, as we could not have done it without you. So go ahead: roll out the red carpet and give us your best acceptance speech. The orchestra will wait; the stage is all yours.

Illinois Public Media wins 2 regional EMMYs® for Barns: An Illinois Story

Illinois Public Media is proud to announce that our original documentary film, Barns: An Illinois Story, has won two Mid-America Regional Emmy Awards. The awards, for program promo and photography, are a huge honor for IPM. “The goal of local public media is to bring alive the stories of our area. For Barns, such an integral part of our local farming community, to be the winner of not just one but two Emmy awards is a huge honor,” said President and CEO Moss Bresnahan.

Danda Beard, director of development and producer of Barns, couldn’t agree more. “Our inspiration for this program was the photography book Barns of Illinois by Larry and Alaina Kanfer. We wanted to further explore the beauty that many often believe is just flyover country. Our goal was to make a show that adequately conveyed the history and purpose of these structures, and that’s exactly what producer Oliver Peng accomplished. These awards are just icing on the cake!”

Start the holiday season with the classics

"Feel good show of the fall"

The festive Roundabout Theatre Company production of Irving Berlin's Holiday Inn, a Great Performances production, comes to PBS at 8 pm Friday, November 24.

The musical tells the story of Jim, who leaves the bright lights of Broadway—as well as his fiancé dance partner Lila—to settle down at an old farmhouse in Connecticut... but life just isn't the same without a bit of song and dance. Jim's luck takes a turn for the better when he meets Linda, a spirited schoolteacher with talent to spare. Together they turn the farmhouse into a seasonal inn with show-stopping performances to celebrate each holiday, from Thanksgiving to the Fourth of July. But when Jim's best friend, Ted, tries to lure Linda away to be his new dance partner in Hollywood, will Jim be able to salvage his latest chance at love?

Songs include such Irving Berlin all-time classics as "Blue Skies," "Cheek to Cheek," "It's a Lovely Day Today," "Easter Parade," and, of course, "White Christmas." Produced in association with Universal Stage Productions, it stars Tony Award® nominee Bryce Pinkham, Lora Lee Gayer, Tony Award® nominee Megan Lawrence, Danny Rutigliano, Megan Sikora and Corbin Bleu.

Ella Ballentine and Martin Sheen return as Anne Shirley and Matthew Cuthbert in Anne of Green Gables-The Good Stars at 7 pm Thursday, November 23. The Thanksgiving Day special is the second part of the classic Lucy Maud Montgomery story of a free-spirited teenager on Prince Edward Island at the start of the 20th century.

"We are excited to bring Anne of Green Gables back to our viewers with a second installment, as it continues to be a delightful addition to our Thanksgiving lineup," said Beth Hoppe, chief programming executive and general manager of General Audience Programming, PBS. "Anne of Green Gables continues to provide our viewers with family-friendly programming year-round, especially during the holiday season."

Watch as Anne turns 13 and faces complex situations with friends, learns from inspirational adults, and experiences an escalating friendship with Gilbert. Her free-spirited nature is challenged by her perceived need to be sensible, a journey fraught with confusion and some unfortunate—albeit amusing—mishaps.

On February 9, 1964, 73 million people watched The Beatles perform on The Ed Sullivan Show—the largest TV audience to date. But what the band did next would introduce them to the entire world, permanently transforming the music industry, forever ingraining them into the fabric of popular culture.

From June 1962 to August 1966, The Beatles performed a staggering 815 times in 15 different countries and 90 cities around the world. This incredible period gave birth to “Beatlemania,” and showed the world something completely new: youth-culture unchained!

From Academy Award®-winning director Ron Howard, The Beatles: Eight Days a Week—The Touring Years tells the story of these exceptional years from the point of view of the band, its world and the fans. The film premieres on PBS at 8 pm Saturday, November 25.

It's Been a Minute with Sam Sanders and The Splendid Table join the WILL-AM weekend lineup

"It's been a minute" is another way of saying "let's catch up." Host Sam Sanders does just that every week with two guests in a conversation about the news, culture, and everything on NPR's It's Been a Minute. Sanders focuses on not just what happened each week, but how it felt—and sometimes you just need to talk it out.

APM's The Splendid Table is a culinary, culture, and lifestyle program that has hosted national conversations about cooking, sustainability, and food culture for over 20 years.

The shows joins the WILL-AM 580 weekend lineup after the final goodbye to the classic series Car Talk. "As episodes of Car Talk are no longer being produced, we needed to find great new additions to the weekend morning schedule," said David Thiel, director of programming services. "The Splendid Table will start a relaxing weekend at 9 am on Saturdays, and It's Been a Minute at 10 am Sundays is a great way to wrap up the weekend before the news cycle begins again Monday morning."

Making it in New York City is tough. Few get the chance to live out their dreams, and the cast and crew of In the Heights know this all too well. This young, diverse group of relatively unknown artists and performers have dreamed of making it on Broadway. It took eight years in all, but they succeeded beyond their wildest expectations. In the Heights: Chasing Broadway Dreams by Great Performances at 8 pm Friday, November 10 chronicles the personal stories of composer/lyricist Lin-Manuel Miranda and the cast of In the Heights in the months leading up to opening night.

Great Performances presents the Tony Award-winning Indecent at 8 pm Friday, November 17. Written by Paula Vogel, the play is about the love and passion to create theatre, even in the most difficult of times. It follows a troupe of actors who risked their lives and careers against enormous challenges to perform a work in which they deeply believed, at a time when art, freedom, and truth were on trial. "The themes of love and inclusion present in Indecent are something everyone can still appreciate and understand today," said BroadwayHD co-founders, Stewart F. Lane and Bonnie Comley. "Recording these brilliant shows is so important, and we're honored to be able to continue to spread this message for years to come."

A message of love and tolerance

Preparing for Mars

Beyond a Year in Space, the follow up to A Year in Space, chronicles astronaut Scott Kelly's return and adjustment to life on Earth after spending 12 months on the International Space Station (ISS), the longest space mission in American history. Airing at 8 pm Wednesday, November 15, the film tracks the extensive medical testing undergone by Scott and his identical twin brother and fellow astronaut, Mark Kelly, to determine what it will take for humans to endure long-duration space travel in preparation for a mission to Mars.

A. LINCOLN

Supporting our troops

VA: The Human Cost of War is an hour-long documentary film that explores the history of the department of Veterans Affairs—from the troubled beginnings of the Veterans Bureau of the 1920s, to the modern VA system. The film airs at 8 pm Monday, November 6 and chronicles, in depth and often wrenching detail, the workings of this crucial but at times beleaguered American institution: exploring what it does and how it functions, its vast size and critical importance, its history and provenance, and how it may be reformed going forward.

A favorite leading man

Legendary Academy Award and Tony Award winner Kevin Kline makes his eagerly awaited return to Broadway in Noël Coward's outrageously irresistible backstage comedy Present Laughter. With a spectacular cast headed by three-time Tony and Emmy Award nominee Kate Burton, Tony Award nominee Kristine Nielsen, and Cobie Smulders in her Broadway debut, with direction by Tony Award nominee Moritz von Stuelpnagel, Present Laughter follows a self-obsessed actor in the midst of a mid-life crisis. The show, presented by Great Performances, airs at 8 pm Friday, November 3.

David Letterman has been hailed as one of the most innovative and influential broadcasters in the history of television. In 33 years on late-night television, Letterman hosted 6,028 episodes of Late Night (NBC) and The Late Show (CBS), surpassing his mentor, Johnny Carson, for the longest-running late-night broadcaster in American history. As a writer, producer, and performer, Letterman is one of the most-nominated people in Emmy Award history, with 52 nominations, resulting in 10 wins. Now, watch as he receives The Kennedy Center Mark Twain Prize for American Humor at 7 pm Monday, November 20, as the program pays tribute to the humor and accomplishments of the broadcasting icon.

New Independent Lens documentaries premiere in November

Set against the social, political and cultural landscape of the times, Chasing Trane brings saxophone great John Coltrane to life, as a man and an artist. Written and directed by John Scheinfeld, Chasing Trane is the definitive look at the boundary-shattering musician whose influence continues to this day. The film kicks off the new season of Independent Lens at 9 pm Monday, November 6.

Chasing Trane features never-before-seen Coltrane family home movies, footage of Coltrane and his band in the studio, along with hundreds of never-before-seen photographs and rare television appearances from around the world.

Independent Lens' Shadow World at 8:30 pm Monday, November 20 reveals the shocking realities of the global arms trade. Based on the acclaimed book by Andrew Feinstein, the film explores how governments, their militaries and intelligence agencies, defense contractors, arms dealers and agents are inextricably intertwined with the international trade in weapons, and how that trade fosters corruption, determines economic and foreign policies, undermines democracies and creates human suffering.

FARM ASSETS CONFERENCE

Annual Farm Assets Conference returns to Normal

Illinois Public Media will again partner with the Illinois Corn Growers Association and the Illinois agricultural community to present the 2017 Farm Assets Conference.

The conference will be Tuesday, November 21 at the Marriott Hotel and Conference Center in Normal in conjunction with the Illinois Corn Growers Association's annual meeting. This annual conference unites agricultural leaders and discuss challenges facing the industry.

The 2017 Farm Assets Conference will once more be hosted by WILL-AM and Todd Gleason, one of the premiere voices of Illinois Agriculture.

Information about this year's conference can be found online at: www.farmassetsconference.com. Major support for the conference was provided by Farm Credit, Syngenta, and TIAA-CREF Center for Farmland Research. Sponsorship information for the 2017 conference is available from Erin Lippitz (elippitz@illinois.edu, 217-333-4994).

#GIVINGTUESDAY

November 28, 2017

On Tuesday, November 28, WILL once again will participate in Giving Tuesday. Established in 2011, Giving Tuesday was created as an official start to end-of-year and holiday philanthropic giving. We encourage you to remember WILL in your charitable contributions by making a direct gift to our station. Visit willpledge.org or call 1-800-898-1065 to make your 2017 tax-deductible gift that provides excellent local radio, TV, and web programming.

If you would like to see your generosity go twice as far, visit our website or contact us to see if your employer is one of the many that will match your annual contribution or other gift to Illinois Public Media. By simply working at one of dozens of employers throughout Central Illinois, your #GivingTuesday gift will make double the impact.

To enjoy additional tax benefits while also sustaining local public media, consider making a gift of your retirement plan assets. Money held in qualified retirement and IRA accounts can be subject to as much as 70% in taxes. But if a nonprofit organization such as WILL is named as the beneficiary of all or a percentage of your retirement plan assets, the entire amount can be used by WILL to create, produce, and broadcast programs. Your other less heavily-taxed assets are then available to your loved ones.

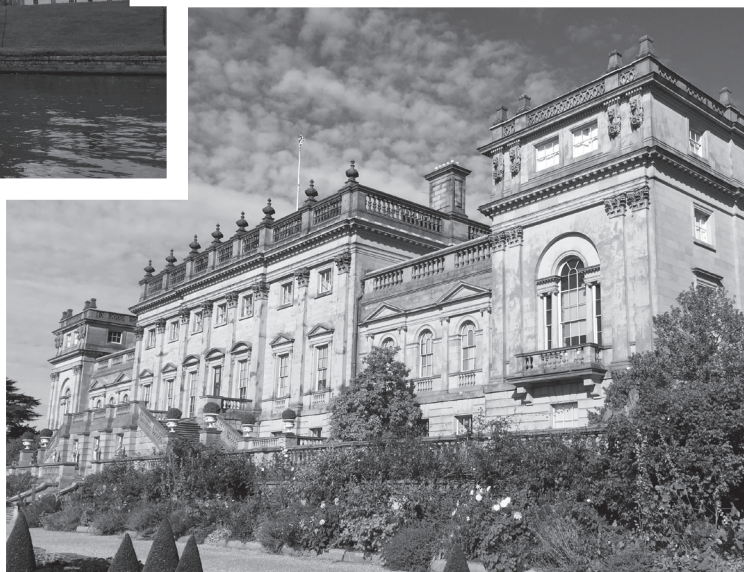

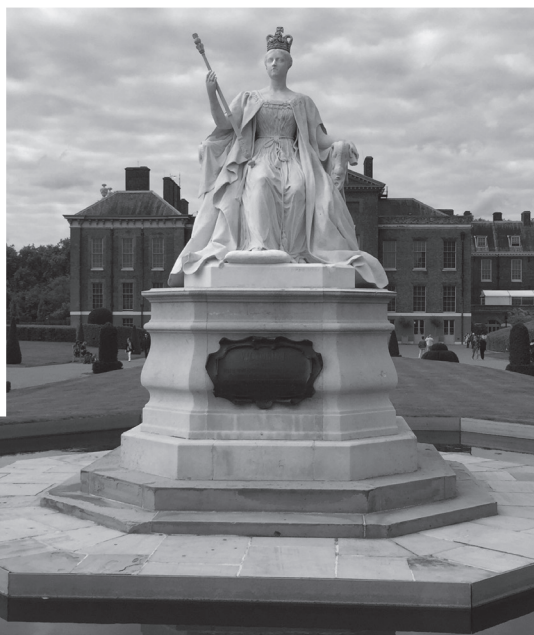

For more information on continuing your financial support to WILL, please contact Danda Beard at 217-333-9393.

New interim host of Mid-American Gardener

Sandy Mason, state master gardener coordinator at the University of Illinois Extension, will host Mid-American Gardener through February 2018. Mason, a frequent expert panelist on the show, is no stranger to gardening television. "I hosted In the Garden on WCIA TV's The Morning Show for 15 years, in addition to 24 years as a panelist on Mid-American Gardener. I'm so excited to be following in Dianne Noland's footsteps as the show enters this transitional period."

Mason's temporary role is an important stepping stone for the local gardening show's legacy. "As Mid-American Gardener faces new transitions with both hosts and formats, I consider us very lucky to have Sandy on board," said Lisa Bralts, director of content and strategic communications at Illinois Public Media. "Her experience not only as a panelist but also working with so many other Extension educators across the state will be a great asset as we explore the show's future."

Mason echoes the sentiment. "When you have a show like Mid-American Gardener that has been beloved by so many for so many years, a new host is a massive change. I'm looking forward to working with WILL to ensure the integrity of the show remains while also exploring the opportunity to evolve."
