October 2019 Volume XLVII, Number 4

We will begin October in the middle of our fall radio fund drive. While our television programming often gets most of the attention in Patterns, we are incredibly proud of the quality content our news and classical stations continue to provide our community every day of the year.

I know many of you listen daily and can't imagine your lives without hearing all the great local and national hosts. They are part of your morning routine while you drink your coffee, while you commute to and from work, or while you complete your daily responsibilities. WILL-AM 580 helps keep you informed, providing essential news coverage. Meanwhile, WILL-FM 90.9 provides engaging classical music to provide much needed escape.

As both provide an essential backdrop to our lives, it can sometimes be easy to forget the importance of supporting WILL during our radio drive. So here is your reminder, while you sit and read this: go to willpledge.org and sign up to make an ongoing monthly gift to make sure you and your neighbors can continue to count on these important local resources for years to come. Thank you!

RETROREPORT ON PBS

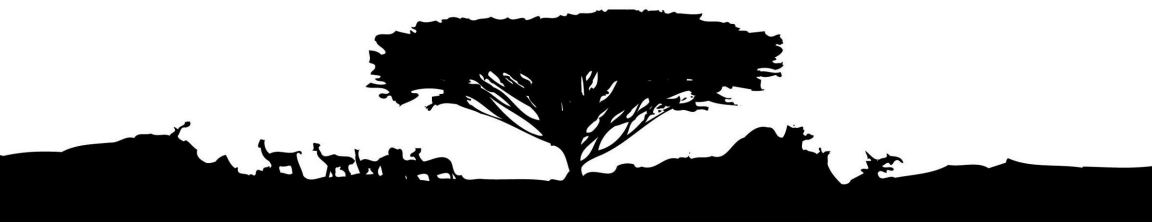

Make sense of the present by revealing the past

Retro Report on PBS, a new one-hour magazine format series hosted by journalist Celeste Headlee and artist Masud Olufani and featuring New Yorker humorist Andy Borowitz, premieres at 8 pm Monday and Tuesday, October 7-8. Presented by Georgia Public Broadcasting and produced by Retro Report, a non-profit organization whose mission is to arm the public with a complete picture of today's most important stories, the series offers viewers a fresh perspective on current headlines, revealing their unknown—and often surprising—connections to the past. The series continues at 8 pm Mondays and Tuesday nights through Tuesday, October 29.

In today's 24-hour news cycle, with breaking headlines, all-news networks, and online outlets constantly competing for attention, Retro Report on PBS aims to widen the discussion, revealing the story behind the story, providing new insights into how today's events have been shaped by the past. Each episode will explore four distinct stories, closing with "Now It All Makes Sense," a special segment featuring the wit and wisdom of author and comedian Andy Borowitz.

Topics to be explored include how decades-old research on human behavior shows that social media's addictive power is by design rather than chance; why half a million children still have dangerously high lead levels even though it was banned from gasoline and household products decades ago; how the sex education policies of today are informed by failures of programs created during the Clinton era; and why mandatory arbitration agreements enacted on Wall Street 20 years ago have negatively impacted today's #MeToo movement.

"Today, more information is available than ever before, and it's coming from countless sources—with varying degrees of credibility," said Perry Simon, Chief Programming Executive and General Manager, PBS. "Retro Report on PBS takes viewers on a journey into the most important stories of the day, looking at them through the lens of their often surprising historical roots, providing new insights while correcting the record and exposing myths along the way."

NATURE®

Now in its 38th season on PBS, Nature brings the wonders of natural history to millions of American viewers. Throughout its nearly 40 year run, Nature has consistently provided entertaining educational content for viewers of all ages in central Illinois. WILL is proud to provide this science-based series to our community, especially since it occasionally features a scientist from one of the many universities in our coverage area. The series has won more than 700 honors from the television industry, the international wildlife film communities and environmental organizations, including 18 Emmys and three Peabody Awards. The series airs at 7 pm Wednesdays throughout the month.

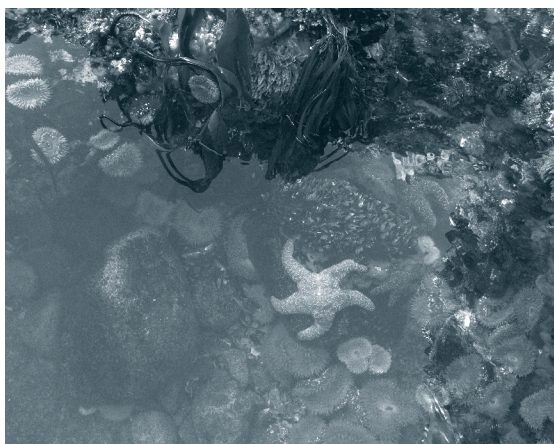

Octopus: Making Contact October 2

Follow an Alaskan professor as he raises and studies a pet octopus in his home, making remarkable discoveries about its extraordinary intelligence, personality and skills. Octopuses are able to recognize faces and interact with other individuals.

The Serengeti Rules October 9

Explore some of the most remote and spectacular places on Earth alongside five pioneering scientists as they make surprising discoveries that flip our understanding of nature on its head, and offer new hope for restoring our world.

Undercover in the Jungle

October 16

Go undercover with a film crew on a perilous journey to the untouched wilderness of biodiversity in the Amazon rainforest.

Meet some of the most incredible creatures, from pygmy marmosets to pumas, as the wild secrets of the jungle are revealed.

Okavanga: River of Dreams: Paradise

October 23

Explore the landscape and wildlife of the Upper Okavango River. A lioness severely injured by a buffalo is left for dead by her pride. Now handicapped, she has to survive in the swamp alone, hunting to feed her little cubs.

Okavanga: River of Dreams: Limbo

October 30

See the landscape and wildlife of the "Middle River," the delta of the Okavango River.

Rooting through family trees

Today's most compelling personalities discover the surprising stories buried within their own families in the sixth season of the critically acclaimed PBS series Finding Your Roots With Henry Louis Gates, Jr. The new season will premiere at 7 pm Tuesdays beginning October 8. The season six extended broadcast lineup will span from Fall 2019 through Fall 2020. The Fall 2019 season will premiere with two new episodes followed by five encore presentations of the series. Season six will return in early 2020 with eight weeks of new episodes featuring both new guests and re-mixed thematic combinations of former participants' stories.

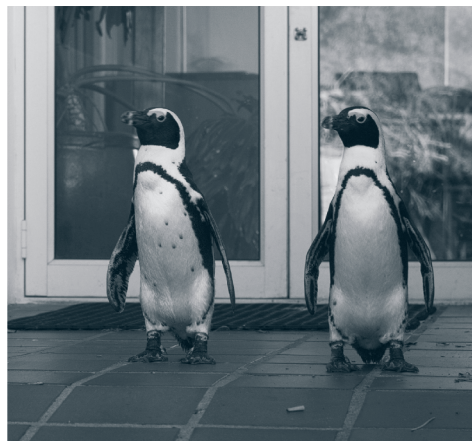

It's important to respect your elders

Life's easy for Diego, who works in a surf shop and performs on the boardwalk for tourists. Yet when his grandmother América injures herself and his father—América's sole caretaker—is imprisoned for negligence, Diego returns to his hometown of Colima, Mexico, to care for her with his brothers Rodrigo and Bruno. Caught between love and obligation, the eccentric trio clash over money, communication, and the considerable challenge of caregiving. POV presents América at 9 pm Monday, October 7.

No “see you later, alligator”

Discover the extraordinary ways wildlife is making itself at home in the world's cities in Wild Metropolis at 9 pm Wednesdays, October 2-16. The three-part series follows animals adapting to life in urban areas, from finding food and shelter and starting families to coping with land displacement, all while people continue to complicate their new habitats.

Masterpiece presents Press, a newsroom drama

An ensemble cast of some of Britain's hottest talent will portray the committed and passionate characters behind the daily news at two fictional, rival newspapers in Mike Bartlett's drama series Press.

The Masterpiece series is set in the world of newspapers in London—its past riven by hacking scandals, its present at the mercy of the digital age and the 24-hour news cycle, its future uncertain—this razor-sharp and observant drama will explore the current, turbulent media landscape and the ethical dilemmas that journalists and editors face each day. Press airs at 9 pm Sundays starting October 6.

Walter's Choice brings multiple international series to TV and Passport

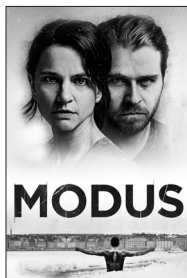

You may have noticed a few “prestige” foreign crime dramas available on Passport labeled as Walter's Choice. This is a curated collection of award-winning international drama, hand-picked by Walter Iuzzolino, a TV connoisseur who has scoured the globe for compelling hits. The selection of international television series is presented in their original languages with English subtitles. We're excited to provide you these shows with WILL Passport, including the newest addition available on October 3—

Thou Shalt Not Kill, an Italian crime drama

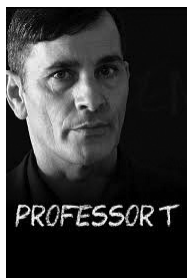

Line of Separation

A gripping historical drama exploring the devastating and sobering effects that decades of conflict had on the close-knit German communities after the second world war.

Modus

Follows psychologist and ex-FBI profiler Inger Johanne Vik as she finds herself and her autistic daughter drawn into an investigation of a series of disturbing and brutal deaths in Stockholm.

Professor T

Eccentric criminal psychology Professor T has a brilliant mind, but also several neurological disorders which make him complex and often difficult, with a very unpredictable nature.

Mid-American Gardener cultivates a new look

After many years, our Mid-American Gardener set has received a makeover! The set was designed and fabricated by Mid-American Gardener's director/producer, DJ Roach, and art director Kurt Bielema. This more open, modular set allows for the show to evolve with the seasons.

Tune in Thursdays at 7 pm on WILL-TV for the same great gardening advice, but with a new look.

Celebrate Friendsgiving with WILL

'Tis the season of thankfulness, and we have much to be thankful for, here at WILL! For 45 years now, the Friends of WILL have been making gifts to support the operation of our stations. In fact, more than 40% of our entire operating budget comes from gifts from Friends like you. Year in and year out, the Friends have not failed to provide annual gifts that have sustained our stations. It's a remarkable relationship, and we want to acknowledge it in November, before the Thanksgiving holiday.

To celebrate that anniversary, and to thank you for all you have done for us over the years, we invite you to a Campbell Hall

Open House. We'd love to say thank you, in person.

Our radio and TV studios have undergone a transformation to digital technology in recent years, so you may want to see your dollars at work, giving WILL staff (and increasingly, UI College of Media students) access to the latest professional digital media tools.

There will be a little food and drink, tours of our radio and TV studios, some highlights from recent programs and projects, and WILL staff on hand to meet, mingle, answer questions, and thank you—very much—for giving to your public radio and television stations!

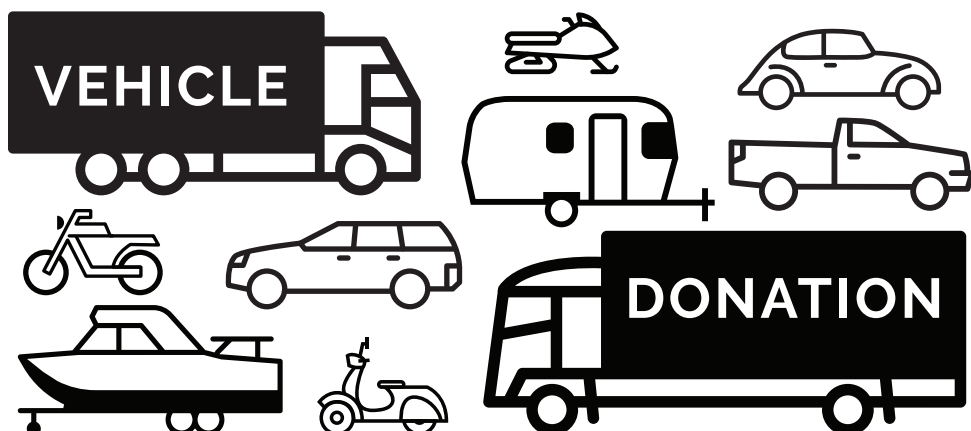

Friendsgiving Open House

When: Tuesday, November 12
5:30-7 pm

Where: Campbell Hall
300 N Goodwin Ave., Urbana

Free parking in UI rental parking lots after 5 pm.

A multi-platform experience

Director/producer Sarah Edwards, producer DJ Roach, and videographer Isaac Musgrave filmed nearly 25 interviews over the course of bringing Illinois Country to life. In our web-only content, we've culled great performances, fascinating (and sometimes funny!) stories, interviews, behind the scenes content and cool tidbits to share with you.

Look for videos featuring the music of Paul Tyler of the Old Town School of Folk Music, musician and historian Chris Vallillo, and various other performances. We'll also release interviews with country star Suzy Bogguss and Champaign natives John Pennell, Andrea Zonn, and Mark Rubel, among others.

Experience this collection of web extras and things you won't see in the one-hour film at will.illinois.edu/illinoiscountry.
