Feedback from our donors on how we spend membership funds at Illinois Public Media is critical, especially with the future of federal funding in question. After all, this is your public media station. So, I encourage you to take our member survey at will.illinois.edu/membersurvey (or scan the QR Code below). Your feedback on our current benefits helps ensure we allocate resources in a way that best serves you while maintaining our community-focused mission. We'd love to hear from you! Learn more on page 20.

Speaking of funding, it was too soon to share our final numbers for our fiscal year 2025 in last month's issue. Now I am happy to tell you that more than 12,500 Friends of WILL and business partners generously support the WILL stations. I was especially encouraged to learn that more than 1,400 new donors joined this year. We extend a warm welcome to all our new Friends of WILL! And we thank all of you that shared the mission of IPM with your friends and family.

To all of you reading this, your commitment has made a powerful impact at a pivotal moment. Because of you, we can continue to deliver trusted news, inspiring music, meaningful arts coverage, and educational children's programming across our region. You've helped us raise more than $2.8 million in annual community support for the new fiscal year. From all of us at Illinois Public Media, thank you for standing with us.

New radio show provides a deep dive into weather and climate with your input

This month, Illinois Public Media premieres a new weekly radio program and podcast, a partnership with the Department of Climate, Meteorology and Atmospheric Sciences in the School of Earth, Society & Environment at the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign. Weather Realness brings the best weather and climate scientists in Illinois to help the public understand weather and climate by providing scientific facts and enlightening conversation.

The program will be divided into two parts. The first segment will focus on weather — understanding storms, heat, winter, etc. and its real-time impacts on our lives. The second part of Weather Realness will focus on climate — understanding the weather over a long period, including ongoing climate change and how it will impact our lives over time. You can submit questions to be answered on the show via voicemail at 217-333-2141 or by email at weatherrealness@illinois.edu.

Host Maddie Stover is in the studio with U. of I. Professor Steve Nesbitt.

Weather Realness is hosted by Maddie Stover, a physics doctorate student at the University of Illinois who is a veteran podcaster. The program includes regular contributions from University of Illinois professor Steve Nesbitt, Illinois State Climatologist Trent Ford, IPM Meteorologist Andrew Pritchard, and many other University of Illinois experts.

"It's part of the human experience to be amazed, angered, concerned, curious, and even thankful because of weather," said Reginald Hardwick, IPM news and public affairs director. "With the climate crisis, our world's weather is changing in complex ways that are simple to understand. We have some of the world's premier atmospheric, meteorological, and climate scientists right here at the University of Illinois. I'm so grateful that we can use the public media vehicle to help connect their well-researched facts with people who listen to Illinois Public Media."

Weather Realness airs Saturdays at 11 am on WILL-AM 580 and debuts Aug. 2; it also can be found at will.illinois.edu/weatherrealness.

Don't miss this special crossover event as Daniel Tiger visits Donkey

Daniel Tiger visits Donkey in a very special crossover episode of Donkey Hodie. Ding-ding! That's the sound of Trolley! Donkey is so excited because Trolley is bringing new pals to Someplace Else — Daniel Tiger and Dad Tiger. They've come to help fix Grampy Hodie's clock, but when a piece goes missing, Donkey and Daniel must look and listen carefully to find it. Join them on this fantastic adventure! In addition, all-new episodes of Daniel Tiger's Neighborhood (weekdays at 8 am) and Donkey Hodie (weekdays at 10 am) premiere this month beginning Monday, Aug. 11.

AUGUST FEATURES

‘Prairie Fire’ encore features season 2 premiere

This month, Prairie Fire will rebroadcast an episode from September 2024 at 7:30 pm Thursday, Aug. 21. The episode kicked off our second season with a visit to Fresh Press on the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign campus, where students and community members make handmade artisanal paper using agricultural byproducts. The Prairie Fire team also documents a 60-mile overnight bike trip around the Champaign County Forest Preserves to showcase the beauty and history of the county’s forested lands and paths. And the episode features a very special performance with singer Leah Marlene in our studio. The Normal, Illinois, native was third runner-up on season 20 of “American Idol,” and she sings the Prairie Fire theme song. Stream past episodes with the PBS App or online at will.illinois.edu/prairiefire.

Join us for the ‘Summer Night Concert’ from Vienna

Great Performances hosts the annual Vienna Philharmonic Summer Night Concert 2025 at 8 pm Friday, Aug. 29.

For the first time, this year’s concert will be conducted by Maestro Tugan Sokhiev. The annual event is a free open-air performance in the landscaped park and gardens of Schönbrunn Palace. The focus of this year’s program is on well-known melodies from opera and operetta that lead us on a musical journey through various European landscapes and milieus. The concert features as vocal soloist the opera singer Piotr Beczała, who will perform three arias — from Georges Bizet’s “Carmen,” Giacomo Puccini’s “Turandot,” and Emmerich Kálmán’s operetta “Gräfin Mariza.” For the first time, the Vienna Boys Choir will participate in the Summer Night Concert.

Celebrate a country music legend

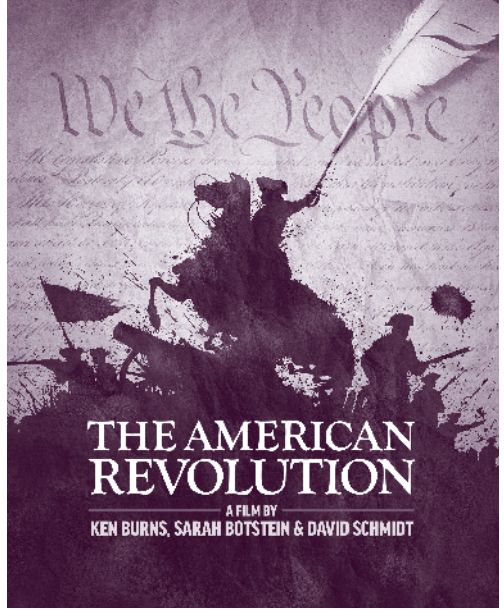

On April 20, 2012, music stars and friends gathered in Austin, Texas, to celebrate the life of Johnny Cash, marking his 80th birthday. The concert took place at Austin City Limits Live at Moody Theater. The standing-room-only event not only paid tribute to Cash and his music but also to his roots and heritage. Performances included Grammy-winning and Grammy-nominated musicians Brandi Carlile, Carolina Chocolate Drops, Ronnie Dunn, Jamey Johnson, Kris Kristofferson, and Willie Nelson, alongside an all-star band led by Grammy Award-winning Don Was, featuring Buddy Miller, Kenny Aronoff, Ian McLagan, and Greg Leisz. Johnny Cash: We Walk the Line airs at 8 pm Saturday, Aug. 9.

Preview Ken Burns' new film about America's founding

Get a special preview of The American Revolution, a new documentary directed by Ken Burns, Sarah Botstein, and David Schmidt coming this fall. The film examines how America's founding turned the world upside down. Thirteen British colonies on the Atlantic Coast rose in rebellion, won their independence, and established a new form of government that radically reshaped the continent and inspired centuries of democratic movements around the globe. An expansive look at the virtues and contradictions of the war and the birth of the United States of America, the film follows dozens of figures from a wide variety of backgrounds. In the film, viewers experience the war through the memories of the men and women who were there: the rank-and-file Continental soldiers and American militiamen, Patriot political and military leaders, British Army officers, and more. The American Revolution: An Inside Look, airing at 8 pm Tuesday, Aug. 12, provides an early look at the new film.

Learn how to cook food from around the world

In America's Home Cooking: Around The World in 80 Recipes, Chris Fennimore welcomes viewers into the kitchen to celebrate international cuisine. He is joined by special guests who share delicious food and charming stories from around the globe. Stamp your gastronomic passport as you learn to make the Italian-American staple chicken parmigiana, Asian dumplings, Turkish red lentil soup, Middle Eastern hummus and baba ghanoush, and an Eastern European holiday favorite, Bobalki. America's Home Cooking: Around The World in 80 Recipes airs at 11:30 am Saturday, Aug. 9.

Jimi Hendrix's visionary recording studio

Electric Lady Studios: A Jimi Hendrix Vision chronicles the creation of the famous Electric Lady Studios. Rising from the rubble of a bankrupt Greenwich Village nightclub, it became a state-of-the-art recording facility inspired by Jimi Hendrix's vision — the first artist-owned commercial recording studio. The program includes track breakdowns of Hendrix classics such as "Freedom," "Angel," and "Dolly Dagger," plus interviews with original Electric Lady staff members and musical collaborators. Electric Lady Studios: A Jimi Hendrix Vision airs at 10 pm Wednesday, Aug. 13.

TOP 5 R&B Artists

Tying in to our on-air series, we feature the Top 5 R&B artists according to community members, staff members, and VIPs.

Sonya Holley is the executive director of human resources for Student Affairs at the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign. She has been involved in many community initiatives including All Girls Radio/Skreet Radio and more recently as one of the directors for the Champaign Urbana School Foundation. Her top 5:

1. Joe
2. Freddie Jackson
3. Phyllis Hyman
4. Gladys Knight
5. Leon Thomas

Illinois Soul listeners celebrated Juneteenth — BIG!

Illinois Soul — in conjunction with Krannert Center for the Performing Arts and the Champaign County Community Coalition — presented the second annual Juneteenth Celebration Concert featuring the legendary MC and Black Star member Talib Kweli. Held on Stage 5 at Krannert Center, the free, communitywide event drew hundreds of Illinois Soul listeners to celebrate freedom, culture, and connection. The event also featured a Juneteenth Red Carpet that aired live on Facebook. The celebration continued afterward in downtown Champaign at Neil Street Blues for the “official” after-party. Some proceeds from the post-event were donated to Illinois Soul.

Join us in downtown Champaign for live music sponsored by Illinois Soul

Illinois Soul continues its support of live music with two concerts this month as part of downtown Champaign's The Beat on Market Street summer series. Events this month include Reggae Night with Ryan Byfield & Nuclei on Aug. 2 and the R&B, soul & funk band THER'UP.Y on Aug. 30.

Reggae Night promises an evening of infectious vibes with Ryan Byfield & Nuclei. Byfield, a vibrant Caribbean artist from the island of Jamaica, and his band perform original as well as cover materials. It's a chance to dance, unwind, and connect with other enthusiasts. Expect a blend of classic hits and newer tracks with a focus on creating a positive and energetic experience.

Ther'Up.Y is one of the hottest bands here in Champaign-Urbana. They have been the house band of the longest running spoken word-comedy and live R&B show, "Soul On Sunday." There isn't a genre of music that they can't handle or an audience they can't inspire to move in their seats. Under the direction of Aaron (A+/Atrain) Wilson, you're guaranteed to feel amazing, and it will change the atmosphere that you're in.

Concerts take place at 8:30 pm in the heart of Downtown Champaign, running north-south between Main street and University Avenue. No ticket is required for the free events. Gates open at 8 pm with entertainment starting around 8:30 and ending at midnight. No entry is allowed after 11:30 pm. Watch The Beat's social media for entry guidelines and cancellations due to inclement weather.

Film provides a last chance for nuclear bomb survivors to be heard Combining personal accounts with archival footage, Atomic People features the voices of some of the only people left on Earth to have survived a nuclear bomb. Known as the “hibakusha,” these last remaining survivors of the atomic bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki share their firsthand experiences. Those who remain today were children at the time of the U.S. nuclear bombing and have carried the horrors of the attacks with them throughout their lives. Survivors were stigmatized and discouraged from sharing their stories initially by the occupying allied forces and by wider Japanese society in the following decades. The documentary takes viewers alongside a survivor as she visits the memorial park which marks the central blast zone in Hiroshima. Today, this memorial park is filled with oleander trees and the sounds of cicadas — but for the survivor, it is filled with the spirits and the voices of those killed. A devastating but important watch, Atomic People allows the voices of the dead and the remaining survivors to be heard.

Watch Atomic People at 9 pm Monday, Aug. 4 or at 9 pm Tuesday, Aug. 12. Stream it on your PBS App the same day.

More innovative films premiere on ‘POV’

Season 38 of POV continues this month with two new independent films that present complex stories of community and family. Each can be streamed with the PBS App beginning the same day of its broadcast premiere.

When a global developer purchases a massive industrial complex on the waterfront and begins to transform the Brooklyn community district of Sunset Park into an “innovation district,” a battle erupts over the future of the neighborhood and of New York City itself. With extraordinary access, Emergent City explores the profound intersections of gentrification, climate crisis and real estate development and asks how change might emerge from dialogue and collective action in a world where too many outcomes are constrained by money, politics, and business as usual. POV presents Emergent City at 9 pm Monday, Aug. 18.

On a small farm in Norway, the Paynes lead a purposefully isolated life, striving to be wild and free. They are self-sufficient, practice homeschooling, and foster a close family dynamic in harmony with nature. But when tragedy strikes, they must adapt to the demands of modern society. A New Kind of Wilderness, airing at 9 pm Monday, Aug. 25, captures an intimate portrait of love, life, and growing up. The family's journey, their triumphs, and struggles, invite reflection on our own life choices, our responsibility to the planet and our children, and how we navigate life after loss.

OUR SUMMER OF MYSTERY CONTINUES

Murder and mystery return to Marlow

While life in the idyllic town of Marlow has just about returned to normal after a chain of murders rattled the tightly knit community, it's not long before retired archaeologist Judith Potts, dog-walker Suzie Harris, and Vicar's wife Becks Starling are called back into action. Thus season 2 of The Marlow Murder Club on MASTERPIECE begins with our civilian sleuths featured in six new episodes (three two-part mysteries). From a seemingly impossible murder inside the locked study of a sweeping mansion to the mysterious case of a man with no connection to the town murdered in the middle of a sleepy cul-de-sac, and an unexpectedly brutal accident at the prestigious Marlow sailing club, there's no rest for our heroines. The Marlow Murder Club on MASTERPIECE airs Sundays at 8 pm beginning Aug. 24. Season 1 is available with WILL Passport, and it also will be rebroadcast two episodes at a time at 8 pm Sunday, Aug. 10 and Aug. 17. Season 2 will be available to stream Aug. 24.

Pursuing justice for cold case victims in season 6

Unforgotten on MASTERPIECE returns with Sinéad Keenan and Sanjeev Bhaskar reprising their roles as DCI Jess James and DI Sunil "Sunny" Khan in season 6. They investigate emotionally charged cold cases from the past, unraveling secrets and unearthing buried truths along the way. In season 6, suspected human remains are discovered on Whitney Marsh. We also meet an outspoken television commentator, an autistic man who lives with his mother, an Afghan who is training for his UK citizenship test, and a history lecturer and faculty head at a central London University. Unforgotten on MASTERPIECE airs Sundays at 9 pm beginning Aug. 24. Stream seasons 1–5 now with WILL Passport. Binge all six episodes of season 6 starting Aug. 24.

Professor T takes off the gloves (literally)

Professor T returns Sundays at 7 pm on Aug. 24 with season 4. The British crime drama stars Ben Miller as Professor Jasper Tempest, a criminologist working at Cambridge University, who uses his genius intellect to solve crimes — all while suffering from OCD and an overbearing mother. The series picks up six months after the events of season 3, as the team turns its attention to a "dangerous crime wave." The gloves are off for our leading man in his lectures, and he also explores a new musical pursuit. Most of the season 3 cast returns, and Rhian Blundell premieres as DS Chloe Highsmith. Elsewhere, romance is in the cards for Adelaide, the lines between professional and personal become blurred for Helena, and Winter becomes Maiya's right-hand man. Seasons 1–3 are available now on WILL Passport. You can watch all of season 4 early with WILL Passport starting Aug. 10.

Passport Exclusive: Examining the world's first superpower

British-Nigerian historian and award-winning filmmaker David Olusoga offers a compelling exploration of the history and legacy of the British Empire in the new documentary Empire — The World's First Superpower with David Olusoga.

In this three-episode special, Olusoga delves into how the empire profoundly influenced the development of modern Britain — its institutions, economy, culture, and national identity — as well as how it reshaped societies across the globe. Through an examination of colonialism, migration, resistance, and cultural exchange, Olusoga reveals the far-reaching consequences of imperial rule. His work also highlights how the legacy of the empire continues to shape the identities, histories, and lived experiences of billions of people worldwide today.

Starting Aug. 4., all episodes of Empire — The World's First Superpower with David Olusoga will be available on the PBS App as a WILL Passport member exclusive.

PMJA recognizes IPM with 3 national awards

Illinois Public Media won three national awards from the Public Media Journalists Association. The 2025 awards celebrate excellence in public media journalism from across the country for the 2024 calendar year.

PMJA

PUBLIC MEDIA JOURNALISTS ASSOCIATION

■ A story about the past conduct of a Sangamon County deputy who is facing murder charges for the fatal shooting of Sonya Massey earned first place for a Collaborative Effort in Division C (8 to 15 newsroom staff). The report, a joint effort of IPM investigative reporter Farrah Anderson, Invisible Institute editor Sam Stecklow, and Illinois Times senior staff writer Dean Olsen, revealed that the officer had moved between six police departments in only four years. The article was cited and shared by thousands, and it even crashed the IPM News website when it was published.

"This collaboration of public media, an investigative news site, and the premier local news site in Springfield proves that local journalism is stronger together," said Reginald Hardwick, news and public affairs director at Illinois Public Media.

■ The 2024 episode of State of Change was awarded first place in Visual Storytelling (Division C) for its coverage of invasive species in Illinois. State of Change is an annual TV program produced by IPM that explains how the climate crisis and other environmental issues are affecting our state. In 2024, host Tinisha Spain, filmmakers Sam Mirpoorian and Jenny Shi, University of Illinois Urbana Champaign student producer Hannah Lonergan, and Bradley University student researchers Sophia Borjon and Brianna Cook presented how invasive plants and animals are drastically changing the ecosystems in Illinois. The program also is broadcast on other PBS member stations in Carbondale, Charleston, Chicago, Peoria, St. Louis, and the Quad Cities.

Accessibility blocked: U. of I. senior dropped disability studies minor over inaccessible bathrooms

■ In the category of Student News Feature, a story by IPM Student Newsroom reporter Layli Nazarova, a U. of I. journalism student, took first prize in all divisions. Nazarova pursued the story — about a U. of I. senior who dropped a disability studies minor because of inaccessible bathrooms — for the College of Media "Audio Journalism" course taught by professor Charles "Stretch" Ledford. The feature explains how the university — despite its pioneering work toward accessibility — continues to fall short.

PMJA is a professional association for public media journalists in the United States. Membership includes over 130 local public radio newsrooms across the country with programs that serve over 1,800 journalists working at its member stations.

Mullally Circle donors recognized with music and brunch

For our third annual Donald P. Mullally Legacy Circle donor recognition event, members were treated to a jazz-themed brunch in our Collins TV Studio. The celebration featured curated music by WILL-FM's Atomic Age Cocktail Party and a live performance from Charles "Chip" McNeill and his jazz group. McNeill is professor and chair of jazz performance in the School of Music at the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign.

Jason Croft, host of the Atomic Age Cocktail Party, emceed and honored former Illinois Public Media general manager Don Mullally, the circle's namesake who had a profound impact on public broadcasting across the country. IPM executive director Moss Bresnahan also spoke to attendees and thanked them for their dedication to the future of the WILL stations. Several IPM staff members also met with donors and answered questions.

Members of the Mullally Circle are committed to ensuring quality public radio and TV programming is secure for future generations by providing long-term support to IPM with a planned gift or endowment. To learn more about how to support the WILL stations by leaving a planned gift to Illinois Public Media, visit will.illinois.edu/support/giftplanning or scan the QR Code.

Illinois Public Media Film Series at the Virginia Theatre

We are pleased to present the Illinois Public Media Film Series at the Virginia Theatre, 203 W. Park Ave., Champaign. Enjoy great films throughout the year and stay for a free community event accompanying each screening.

"The Biggest Little Farm" (2018) will be shown at the Virginia Theatre at 2 pm Saturday, Aug. 9. The film chronicles the 8-year quest of John and Molly Chester as they trade city living for 200 acres of barren farmland and a dream to harvest in harmony with nature.

In conjunction with the film, the Central Illinois Young Farmers Coalition will host a farmers market outside the Virginia Theatre on Park Avenue from 3 to 5 pm. The market will feature several local and regional farms and vendors that include poultry, eggs, vegetables, fresh baked goods, and health resources for farmers from University of Illinois Extension. WILL-TV's Mid American Gardener host, Tinisha Spain, and the show's production team will also be at the market to answer your gardening questions. Make sure you stop by their tent to learn more about this long-running WILL-TV show.

General admission tickets are $7 per film and are available in person at the Virginia Theatre box office and online at thevirginia.org (scan QR Code above right).

2025 MEMBER SURVEY

We appreciate your partnership in making it possible for Illinois Public Media and the WILL stations to offer PBS and NPR programs, local news, agricultural information, classical music, Illinois Soul, and educational resources to our community. Our goal is to provide you with benefits that complement these programs while also ensuring we maximize the amount of your gift that goes directly to our public media mission — especially in our current funding environment. To help ensure we are being good stewards of your investment, please take a few moments to provide feedback about benefits and programs at will.illinois.edu/membersurvey. Thank you for sharing your opinions with us!

Thank you, Program Underwriters!
